STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Section 4 of the Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Backward Classes Act, 1994 provides for the Constitution of the Commission and the term of office of the Chairman and the members thereof. In accordance with the existing provisions of the said section the Chairman or every member shall hold office for term of three years from the date he assumes office or till he attaining the age of sixty-five years. In order to take advantage of persons of social backward having long experience it had been decided to amend the said Act to omit the provision relating to age limit for holding office of the Chairman or the member.

The Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Backward Classes (Amendment) Bill, 2005 is introduced accordingly.

By order,
D.V. SHARMA,
Principal Secy.
